

Pittsburgh International Literary Festival

The Pittsburgh International Literary Festival is a 10 day event that considers themes of migration, identity, and displacement with an emphasis on works in translation.

Highlights include Nobel Prize-winning author Olga Tokarczuk, Pulitzer Prize-winning author Viet Thanh Nguyen, Japanese author Mieko Kawakami, Pulitzer Prize-winning poet/translator Forrest Gander with Mexican poet Coral Bracho "We Crossed the River," a new music concert created by Music on the Edge at the University of Pittsburgh.

All programs are virtual and free. Register now at alphabecity.org/litfest21 and share with your friends across the street or across the globe.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
May 2021
			12	13	14	15
			We Crossed the River 7:00 PM EDT (Concert)	El.Ella.Elle. Translation, pronouns, and inclusion in Argentina 7:00 PM EDT (Panel)	Representation and Translation 7:00 PM EDT (Panel)	Rosa Alcalá & Kitchen Table Translation Issue 5:30 PM EDT International Perspectives from Autumn House Press • 8:00 PM EDT (Conversation + reading)
16	17	18	19	20	21
Scholastique Mukasonga 2:00 PM EDT Ilan Stavans 5:00 PM EDT Katabasis 6:30 PM EDT (Panel)	Language Politics in Translation 7:00 PM EDT (Panel)	Mieko Kawakami + translators Sam Bett and David Boyd 8:00 PM EDT (Conversation + reading)	Viet Thanh Nguyen 7:00 PM EDT (Conversation + reading)	Olga Tokarczuk & Jennifer Croft 7:00 PM EDT (Conversation + reading)	Forrest Gander & Coral Bracho 7:00 PM EDT (Conversation + reading)	